

Bournemouth & District Fabian Society

JESSICA ASATO CV

Born in 1981 & educated at Trinity Hall College, Cambridge where she gained a BA in Law.

Jessica is currently Acting Director of Progress.

Previously Jessica was a researcher at the Social Market Foundation think tank & worked as a freelance researcher.

Former Chair of the Young Fabians, and has been an Executive Member of the Fabian Society since 2004.

Former Vice-Chair of Young Labour and is active in her local Labour party in Islington North.

Chair of Jack Taylor Special School in Camden, and Vice-Chair of Brook which is a charity working to promote better sexual health among young people. In July 2008

Jessica set up the Gareth Butler History Trust to raise money to pay for disadvantaged students to go on school history trips.

Ambassador for Make Justice Work, a recently launched campaign to raise awareness of the need for penal reform and a board member of Vote for a Change, a campaign arguing for a referendum on electoral reform.

Founder of the first group blog for Labour women <http://labourwomen.blogspot.com>

Jessica regularly appears on TV and radio commenting on politics and current affairs.

Bournemouth & District Fabian Society invites you to listen to their guest speaker

Jessica Asato

Jessica will be speaking on the topic of:
“New Labour's Legacy and where the Party goes next?”

Date & Time : Friday 29th
January 2010 at 7.30pm

Venue: The Friends Meeting House,
Wharncliffe Road, Boscombe,
Bournemouth.

Admission: £1 members £2 visitors.
Coffee, Tea & Refreshments served.

